2/2/2010 FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

Savage Range Systems Launches New Target System

Westfield, MA: Savage Range Systems, manufacturers of indoor and outdoor shooting ranges, bullet traps, target systems and shoot houses, unveiled their new KMA Overhead Target Retrieval System at the recent SHOT Show.

The KMA is a modular system, easy to install and maintain. The modular design accommodates any length of range, with lighting that rides the track with the target. Powered by a standard 115/230V outlet, with low wattage LED lighting, the retrieval system runs a self-diagnostic at start-up and uses dual optical sensors to allow the shooter to accurately set the target distance.
